Investigations.

Wayne,

On 7-22-96 I administered a Polygraph examination to Doyle Simpson pertaining to a statement he had made concerning the theft of a pistol. Simpson showed deception to having lied to Officers about the theft and also to having knowledge about the murders at Tarty's Furniture Store. Please find attached the questions asked of Simpson and also a photo copy of the chart itself. It is my opinion that Simpson is not truthful about the theft of the gun and knows who committed the murders.

Also on 7-23-96 I administered two test to Curtis Flowers, This was pertaining to a Burglary of Tarty's Furniture on the weekend of the 6th of July. He was also tested in reference to the murders. Flowers showed deception to both polygraphs. The strongest deception was indicated on the Planning and Conspiring and also having committed the crimes himself. Please find attached a copy of the questions and again copies of the charts.

If I can be of further assistance feel free to call.

STATEMENT OF DOYLE SIMPSON

Today's date is August 14, 1996, the time is now 2:22 P. M. The location is the Winona Police Department. The following is a voluntary statement from Doyle Simpson. This is a voluntary statement given to John Johnson, Investigator with the District Attorney's office, and Mr. Jack Matthews, Investigator with the Highway Patrol.

Johnson: Mr. Simpson, I want to direct your attention back to July 15, 1996. That is on a Monday, prior to the murders at Tardy's. I would like for you to tell me where your 380 Automatic pistol was at.

Simpson: In my glove compartment.

Johnson: Of your what model car?

Simpson: '80 Pontiac.

Johnson: '80 model Pontiac?

Simpson: Yeah.

Johnson: You use that car to back and forth to work in?

Simpson: Yeah.

Johnson: When is the last time you actually saw that pistol in you glove box?

Simpson: On Monday evening.

Johnson: On July 15?

Simpson: Yeah.

Johnson: About what time?

Simpson: Between 7:00 and 7:30.

Johnson: Near Night?

Simpson: Yeah.

Johnson: 7:30 P. M.

Simpson: Seven or eight o'clock.

Johnson: That is the last time you saw it in your glove box?

Simpson: (Inaudible)

Johnson: Speak louder for the tape.

Simpson: I put it in there.

Johnson: You put it in there?

Simpson: Yes, Sir.

Johnson: Why did you put it in there at that time?

Simpson: To take it down to David's house.

Johnson: Take it down to whose house?

Simpson: David

Johnson: David Weems?

Simpson: Right.

Johnson: Why were you going to take it to David's?

Simpson: He was going to clean it up.

Johnson: Why was he going to have to clean it?

Simpson: It was just something he was going to do.

Johnson: Well, I mean had you been shooting it?

Simpson: Oh, No, No. It just something...you know he always cleans his up.

Johnson: Why would you have to clean it if you had not been shooting it?

Simpson: Because that is something we...he likes to do.

Johnson: What brand gun was this?

Simpson: 380

Johnson: A 380 automatic with a clip in it. O. K. David Weems is your.....(Interruption)...Hold on just a minute.....So you know that the gun was in there and then at that time, or along about that time, did you go somewhere then?

Simpson: I left for my girlfriend's.

Johnson: What is her name?

Simpson: Deneice.

Johnson: Deneice, what?

Simpson: Deneice Kindle.

Johnson: Where did ya'll go?

Simpson: To her house.

Johnson: and you spent the night there?

Simpson: Yeah

Johnson: What time did you get back to your mother's house there on Poorhouse Road?

Simpson: About 5 or 6.

Johnson: In the morning?

Simpson: Between 5:30 and 6:00 in the morning.

Johnson: and from there where did you go?

Simpson: to Angelica.

Johnson: That is where you work part time?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: Where did you park your car?

Simpson: There in front by Angelica.

Johnson: In the front door near the office?

Simpson: side.

Johnson: The side door?

Simpson: The side front door.

Johnson: The side front door?

Simpson: The back door. I meant to say the back door.

Johnson: Were you close to Church Street there going down by Screw Conveyor?

Simpson: (inaudible)

Johnson: That is what I am saying, but closer to Church Street than say that back gate going out Angelica Drive.

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: You stayed at work. Did you ever leave work that morning?

Simpson: No, Sir.

Johnson: What time did you leave there?

Simpson: (Inaudible) Because I took up some money.

Johnson: Tell me about that time. You took up some money from other people to go get lunches for them?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: Did you ever go out to your car that morning?

Simpson: Yeah

Johnson: What time?

Simpson: I guess about 20 or 25 after.

Johnson: After 10?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: What was your purpose for going out there?

Simpson: To let the heat out of my car.

Johnson: You let the windows down. Is that correct? To get some air in there?

Simpson: Yeah

Johnson: Was there anything unusual about your car at that time?

Simpson: No, I did not notice.

Johnson: You did not notice glove box damage or anything?

Simpson: I did not pay attention.

Johnson: Your gun was locked in that glove box?

Simpson: Yeah

Johnson: At that point you did not know that anybody had been in your car?

Simpson: Right.

Johnson: Then you went back out there at what time?

Simpson: (Inaudible) I say about twenty minutes til eleven.

Johnson: What time did you check out?

Simpson: 10:29.

Johnson: You checked out at 10:29, but then you went....where did you go at 10:29?

Simpson: Around through the plant.

Johnson: You went around through the plant, for what?

Simpson: To get money.

Johnson: What time did you go to New Orleans Fried Chicken or Fuzzy's?

Simpson: (Inaudible).

Johnson: And what time was that?

Simpson: (Inaudible) That what I said about a quarter till.

Johnson: A quarter till eleven?

Simpson: I think about that time.

Johnson: Did you notice anything about your car then?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: What?

Simpson: (Inaudible)....before I left the pocket had been broke.broke down.

Johnson: If the pocket was open, what did you notice? You just went on to get your food? Is that correct?

Simpson: No, No. I went next door before I left Angelica.

Johnson: Next door to what?

Simpson: Next door to IBP. I asked them if they see anybody around my car. They said, "No, what is wrong?" I said, "Somebody broke in there and stole that gun?"

Matthews: Why would you have thought that somebody from IBP would have seen?

Simpson: That side door. They keep the side door open and they can see my car. (Inaudible)

Johnson: From IBP? IBP is on the north side of that building, Isn't it?

Simpson: No, You got a door right there. You can see straight. You can see from my car straight on through the plant.

Johnson: Let's go back. At that point what did you do? Did you report that to anybody?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: To who?

Simpson: My Supervisor.

Johnson: Who is that?

Simpson: (Inaudible)

Johnson: Plant Manager?

Simpson: Yes, Plant Manager.

Johnson: Did you report it to anyone else?

Simpson: No, She called the police.

Johnson: She called the police. Did you tell anybody else about it?

Simpson: No. Oh, Yeah. At the chicken place.

Johnson: Isn't it true that the first person that you went and asked about this was Emmitt Simpson?

Simpson: I asked all (Inaudible) people.

Johnson: O.K.

Simpson: But he was my (inaudible) brother. He wouldn't know.

Johnson: Describe this pistol again for us. It is a 380 automatic. It has got a clip in it. What color is it?

Simpson: Black (Inaudible).

Johnson: Do you know what brand it is?

Simpson: Inaudible)

Johnson: O.K. Do you know what brand it is?

Simpson: (Inaudible)

Johnson: Where did you get this gun?

Simpson: I bought it over there.

Johnson: From who?

Simpson: Ike.

Johnson: Ike? Mr. Williams?

Simpson: I don't know his real name.

Johnson: All you know is Ike? He lives over there in the project?

Simpson: Right.

Johnson: And you bought that from him when?

Simpson: Last of last year or the first of the year.

Matthews: In December or January?

Simpson: Round about. I don't can't remember, October, November, I don't know.

Johnson: When you bought it from his what did you pay for it?

Simpson: Seventy Dollars.

Johnson: How much?

Simpson: Seventy Dollars.

Johnson: Seventy Dollars. Who was with you when you went over to Ike's that night?

Simpson: I can't remember.

Johnson: Was it a Jones?

Simpson: Who?

Johnson: A Jones.

Simpson: I don't know. I can't remember.

Johnson: You can't remember who was with you when you bought a gun from Ike?

Simpson: Man, that's been so long ago.

Johnson: About six months ago according to what you said.

Simpson: It has been more than six months ago. I can't remember. I was by myself. I told you I was by myself or I think I was.

Johnson: O.K. I understand after you bought the gun, Did you make an agreement with him? Did he tell you to shoot the gun and make sure it was O.K.?

Simpson: Naw. He didn't tell me nothing.

Johnson: O.K., but did you then take the gun out and shoot it to verify that it would shoot?

Simpson: No, I didn't shoot it then or nothing. I didn't until the first of the year.

Johnson: Somewhere around the first of the year you shot it? Where did you shoot it?

Simpson: (Inaudible) my momma's house.

Johnson: What did you shoot at?

Simpson: Bottles.

Johnson: Bottles. Did you shoot at some post?

Simpson: Post. You know I had a bottle setting on a post.

Johnson: You had a bottle setting up on a post?

Simpson: In the middle of that post.

Johnson: You shot some at a post out there. Is that correct?

Simpson: and bottle. Yeah, Yeah.

Johnson: Is it not true that you went to another man's house and the gun was shot somewhere else? Has that gun been out of your possession since you have owned it?

Simpson: No.

Johnson: It hadn't. Nobody else has had that gun in their hand but you?

Simpson: Nobody but David.

Johnson: David, Who?

Simpson: David (Inaudible)

Johnson: But nobody else has been with you at anytime, Terrell Jones, has he been with you?

Simpson: I don't know him.

Johnson: Do you know any Jones that could have been with you when you bought that weapon?

Simpson: If it was it would be, What is his name?

Johnson: Where does he work?

Simpson: It would be.....

Johnson: (Inaudible)

Simpson: K.I.

Johnson: He works at K.I.? Who is that?

Simpson: That is Duck.

Johnson: Duck? Did he shoot the gun some?

Simpson: No.

Johnson: But he was with you when you shot it?

Simpson: No. I don't think, No, No. We shot it out here to the house, out to my mamma's house, that was my brother-in-law and all of them was out there, that was been a holiday.

Johnson: Is this the gun that you had in your car that you reported stolen on July 16, 1996?

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: Would you tell us why lied to myself, Jack Matthews, Wayne Miller, with the Highway Patrol, and told us that you bought that gun, that gun was given to you by a brother in New Orleans? Why did you tell us that?

Simpson: Because Ike told me not to tell nobody where I got it from.

Johnson: You told what?

Simpson: Ike told me not to tell nobody.

Johnson: Told who that?

Simpson: Told me that.

Johnson: Ike told you that.

Matthews: When did he tell you that?

Simpson: At the same time that I got it.

Johnson: Alright, because Ike had told you not to say something to anybody, you know that we are investigating a murder, four murders down here at Tardy Furniture Store, a place where you worked and knew the victims, and knowing this and asking for your cooperation, you were lying to us about where you got the gun? Would you please tell me why?

Simpson: Because I was scared.

Johnson: Why are you scared?

Simpson: Because I told you that I didn't have anything to do with it and ya'll kept pressuring me man.

Johnson: Well, we are only asking for the truth because you keep lying to us and we knew that.

Simpson: I told ya'll the truth.

Johnson: No, you have admitted lying to us and you also admitted just prior to this in an interview that you called your brother or uncle in New Orleans and asked him to lie for you and say you wanted him to say that he had furnished you that gun, and you admitted that, didn't you? Yes or No.

Simpson: Yes.

Johnson: Would you please tell us why you did that, too? Why are you going to all this trouble to lie to us after we have explained to you that this gun has been matched and made positive identification.....

Simpson: You did not say that. You did not tell me that.

Johnson: Yes, I am, and I am explaining it to you now.

Simpson: You telling me that now see.

Johnson: I explained it to you earlier in an interview and so did Mr. Matthews. ✓

Matthews: I told you. I asked you did you understand it, and you said, "Yes." I told you that I told you that before and I was going to come back to talk to you.

Simpson: About the gun.

Matthews: About the gun.

Simpson: I told you, I told you I said ya'll can.

Johnson: And we told you that this gun has been made positive identification as the gun used in the murder of one, two, three, four people in Tardy Furniture Store on July 16, 1996.

Simpson: You did not tell me that until today.

Johnson: Well, I am telling you that now. Based on that, why were you lying to us and telling your uncle to lie to us?

Simpson: I did not tell him to lie cause he had two. He had a gun like that too. (Inaudible)

Johnson: But you admitted to us awhile ago that you told us that you told him to lie and say that that gun was given to you by him. Why did you do that?

Simpson: Because, I told you man...(Inaudible)

Johnson: I know. You say you don't know. We are asking you. You should know.

Simpson: Like I said.. I'm not talking about scared. I'm talking about like this...a (Inaudible) I don't know man.

Matthews: Did you not think that we would ask your uncle about that?

Simpson: Yeah, ya'lls gone ask him.

Johnson: That is the reason that you told him to lie, isn't it?

Simpson: No, I didn't tell him to lie.

Johnson: You admitted to us awhile ago and on tape that you did. ✓

Simpson: I said I told him that they going to say that same gun might have come back like that like that on the one that he had.

Johnson: Yeah, and what did you tell him to say?

Simpson: And I said to tell everybody that that is the gun that you gave me.

Johnson: O.K. that is exactly what I just got through saying, Mr. Simpson, that you lied to us and you asked him to lie to us. That is what that means. Involving four murders, your gun has been made positive identification as being the gun that killed these people. People that you supposedly have worked with and worked for that have done favors for you.

Simpson: I don't know. Do ya'll know that that is the same gun?

Johnson: Yes, we do. The crime lab has made positive identification on it. We have already explained that to you several times. Are you listening to me? What is your question now? How do you answer that? You are making a hand signal. I did not understand that.

Simpson: I don't have nothing to say.

Johnson: You don't have nothing else to say?

Simpson: No.

Johnson: O. K. That will conclude the statement. The time is now 2:37 P. M.
